Enchanted with fragrances

With great pleasure we received the information that the Spa Senses collection was awarded in national competition for the best packaging of the year – Art of Packaging 2010 – in the category: Professional – Health and Beauty packaging. In this competition, the most innovative and creative packagings are promoted and honoured for an interesting form, utility value, design and aesthetic workmanship. So the prize is given those packagings, that are able to satisfy taste of even the most fastidious consumers. The more we are pleased that the cosmetics of Spa Senses series, which you already became fond of, were also appreciated by specialists.

We like to be surrounded by beauty. And when an attractive bottle is combined with an alluring aroma, the pleasure is double. Therefore, among the new FM products by Federico Mahora, a number of brand new scents of perfumes and perfumed waters have appeared, in attractive bottles of the Luxury Collection. According to current trends, they are mostly intriguing, ambiguous scents, sometimes with a hint of spiciness. I am convinced, that these new products will meet your expectations.

I hope you enjoy reading and shopping!
